DVD EXTRAS

1. GRACE HATA: LIFE IN JAPAN (9:41)

Grace Hata describes her family's struggle for survival after they decided to live in Japan.

2. INTERVIEW WITH KONRAD ADERER (5:04)

Director Konrad Aderer talks about what drove him to make Resistance at Tule Lake, why the Tule Lake story remains urgent today, and how the legacy of resistance is being carried on in the pilgrimage community.

Resistance at Tule Lake tells the long-suppressed story of 12,000 Japanese Americans who dared to resist the U.S. government's program of mass incarceration during World War II. Branded as "disloyals" and imprisoned at Tule Lake Segregation Center, they continued to protest in the face of militarized violence, and thousands renounced their U.S. citizenship.

Giving voice to experiences that have been marginalized for over 70 years, this new documentary from Japanese American filmmaker Konrad Aderer challenges the nationalist, one-sided ideal of wartime "loyalty."
